Rumor That the Western Crack May Be a Victim of Rough Riding in Future Events-Roseben Not Himself-Killing With Park View and Bellwether Falls.

There was a story in circulation in the paddock at Belmont Park yesterday to the effect that the white jockeys now riding at that track were framing up a plot to put J. Lee, he negro rider whom F.A.Forsythe signed the other day, out of commission. It was said that Lee received a tip the other day that he would be thrown into the rails or over the fence by several of the rough riders as soon as the chance was offered. This was the excuse given for Lee's poor ride on Robert Cooper in the Pocantico Stakes on Thursday, when he was caught in a jam on the backstretch and compelled to pull up. Those who were at New Orelans last winter said yesterday that the white boys were coninually trying to crowd Lee so that he would become intimidated, and that after a series of rough incidents the negro decided to assert

It is said also that Lee, meeting Jockey Nicol on the steps of the St. Charles Hotel in the Crescent City one evening, grabbed him by the coat collar and told him that he would stand for no nonsense. Nicol, it is said, declared that Lee was in error and the boys were separated. Lee is a powerful youngster physically, who is fearless, it is declared, and who believes that with a fair deal he can demonstrate his skill as a finished horseman here. He has been informed of the alleged conspiracy against him, it is stated, and has declared that no matter what may come off he will do his best.

One of the best riders in the East, Notter, old a man the other day that Lee was one of the greatest jockeys he had ever seen and that he was probably the quickest boy at the post in this or any other country. But, according to the yarn, Notter said he and the other white boys did not like to have the negro riding in the same races with them The stewards, in view of these stories, may look into the matter, particularly if Lee is the victim of rough riding in future events

Lee, by the way, rode his first winner since coming East when he took the fourth race with Ogemah, a Kinley Mack colt owned by C. L. Harrison, one of the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel engineers, whose colors were carried to victory last season by the colt Alfred Noble. Ogemah was saddled by Raleigh Colston, F. H. Forsythe's trainer, this combination did not bet much on the son of Kinley Mack, as he receded in the prices from 10 to 15. This race was a big leanup for the books incidentally, for David Warfield was backed from 4 to 13 to 5, while there was a solid play on August Belmont's Golden View, a filly by Hastings—Fairy Gold, who receded to 3. If P. J. Dwyer's Grania had won the ring would have been jolted. as she was backed from 7 down to 4. Just as the experts pointed out when with 140 pounds beat Aletheuo the other day, the Big Train showed that he was far from being in his best form in the Claremont Handicap yesterday. Jack Atkin, who was slated to pick up 142 pounds, was scratched, but Dave Johnson insisted upon starting Roseben, who carried 129 pounds. wise men, however, did not care much for Roseben, for he went back in the betting from 7 to 5 to 2 to 1. Mr. Belmont's Priscillian, on the other hand, was in much demand, and opening at 2 to 1 he was no better than 7 to 5 when the books closed. King Cobalt was also heavily played in this race from 6 to 1 to 3, while there was also support for Stargowan, lowered from 20 to 15, and for Rosimiro, reduced from 15 to 12. Priscillian received two pounds by the scale from Roseen and at the same time conceded twelve to King Cobalt. Roseben was literally run off his feet by Rosimiro, a selling plater, in the first half mile and was so badly beaten that the impression prevailed afterward that if Jack Atkin and the Big Train should meet in a match race at scale weight next month oseben would receive a thorough trimming. Roseben, with 115 pounds, won the Clare-mont in 1905, while Flip Flap, with 108 and Jack Atkin with 114 were the winners in the next two years.

As further proof of Roseben's unfitness it may be pointed out that Aletheuo, with the Big Train beat him in the same kind of going the other day, was no match for Park View and Colonel Jack in the opening event yesterday. The Mathews boys, Will and Al, put over a sensational killing with Park View, a three-year-old filly by Hamburg—Morningside, once owned by H. P. Whitney. While the falent showed a marked preference for Colonel Jack and backed him from 6 to 5 to 4 to 5, the Mathews boys and their friends played Park View from 6 down to 18 to 5, Aletheuo going back to 5 to 2. Park View never ran a better race, but she had all the luck with her, as Colonel Jack was tangled up in the barrier at the start. When the race was over the stewards asked McDaniel to tell why Colonel Jack dropped back so quickly at the start, but the boy's explanation, cor roborated by Mars Cassidy, was satisfactory.

Having won big money on Park View the Mathews boys sent it all back on their colt Bellwether in the last race, which looked to be a cinch. Bellwether opened at 8 to 5 and after being knocked about at the start the colt was ft unable to stall off the unexpected rush of the unbacked Lord Stanhope. So the double Mathews coup went by the boards, much to the delight of the chalkers, who cleaned up in great style on the defeat of Samuel Emery learned to his sorrow after the fifth race that there is nothing in putting up a green stable boy to get a price. Emery had Master Robert in this event and Trainer Blakely gave the mount to a little boy named Fulton, who rode Arasee to victory in a recent event. The books handed out even money as a starter, but Emery was so sure of success that he told all of his friends to bet the limit As a result all of the big players went to Master Robert until he was backed down to 4 to 5. When Fulton showed conclusively that he was of practically no assistance to Master Robert Emery looked the picture of sadness. Master Robert last year showed that he needed a hustling ride in the homestretch, where he was always at his best. But Fulton could not ride him in this way at all. Tony Bonero, the winner, was well backed straight and place. Mr. Belmont's Anteus, a colt by Henry of Navarre—Annot Lyle, also got a liberal place play, as did E.W. Jewett's Bedouin, who is by no means ready for a hard race.

While Taboo, the winner of the third race. was backed three ways, the books won on the result because of the money burned up by Dander, Bonnie Kelso, Warder and Joe Gaitens. Right Sort, who showed a big improvement, was taken three ways, but Gliding Belle was generally passed up. A Montreal business man went up to Book naker Emerson on Thursday and by mistake handed him a $50 and a $500 bill, making a bet of $50 straight and $100 a place. The horse ost and the Montreal man did not discover his error until he had left the track. He came down yesterday in a hurry and hunted up John G. Cavanagh, with the result that his $100 was returned to him. Emerson, it appears, handed the money over to Cavanagh s few minutes after the Montreal man had made his bet and left.

Jockey Sumter was suspended for three days by the starter for disobedience at the Charles McCarthy, for many years | cashier

DUAL MEET TO-DAY.

Princeton Favorite Over Columbia in Annual Track Contests.

Princeton will meet Columbia in the annual track and field meet at Columbia Oval, Williamsbridge, this afternoon. From the re-sults of the meets in which the two teams have participated this season it looks as if the Tigers will have little difficulty in taking the contest by a decisive score. The feature of the day will probably be the mile run between McGee of Princeton and Hoyns of Columbia. The Columbia man has covered the distance in 4 minutes 32 seconds, a trifle faster than McGee's best performance this spring. The sprints will probably go to Princeton, and the best that Columbia can hope for is Kimbel finishing in second place in the dashes. Both teams are noticeably weak in hurdlers, although Columbia has a fair performer in Murray. Talcott and Clark, the Tiger's high jumpers, are hardly good for more than 5 feet 5 inches, and both Ryan and Ware ought to score in this for Columbia. In the weight events Princeton should win the majority of the points and it should do the same in the pole vault. In the quarter Zink of Columbia is likely to give Atlee, the Princeton flier, a stiff race. With Whitely out of the half mile Columbia seems to stand a chance of scoring a few points with Hoyns, Zink and Sanders. etween McGee of Princeton and Hoyns of

The final core was Meadow Brook, 10%; Westchester s. From first to last the victors showed narked superiority and this was chiefly owing to the work of the Phipos family.

EASY FOR HARVARD AT LACROSSE Crimson Team Beats Columbia Twelve by

10 Goals to 0. Harvard's lacrosse team buried the Columbia twelve on South Field yesterday after-noon under a total of 10 goals to 0. The play in the first half was good and Harvard was able to tally only two goals, as the Columbia able to tally only two goals, as the Columbia defence was strong and the attack kept the ball zigzagging across the field. But in the second period Harvard scored eight goals in quick succession and completely outplayed the local team. Just before the end of the game Alexander, who played centre for Harvard, attempted to dodge a scrimmage and had his nose broken by one of the Columbia players. His place was taken by Allen. The Crimson played a good passing game and in the second half had no difficulty in getting inside the Columbia defence. Furber at inside home scored four of the Harvard goals, while Vance, the captain, was credited with three. Melitzer was the star attack man for the home team and had several good tries at

BELMONT'S CRACK THREE-YEAR-OLD TAKES CLAREMONT.

Son of Hastings Beats King Cobalt and Reseben in the Mud-Park View, Taboo, Ogemah, Tony Bonero and Lord Stanhope Also Score—Four Choices Lose.

August Belmont's Priscillian, a son of Hastings—St. Priscilla, again proved that he is one of the star three-year-olds when he won the Claremont Handicap, at six and a half furlongs, over a sloppy track at Belmont Park yesterday. He closed an equal favorite with Roseben at 2 to 1, while King Cobalt was backed from 6 to 3. Rosimiro, 12 to 1, an added starter, went out with Rose ben at the start and set a killing pace. Rose ben, with 129 pounds up, could not get away from Rosimiro in the run to the head of the stretch, where both backed up. Then Notter let Priscillian, who had been third up to this point, have his head, with the result tha he rushed to the front and won easily by length and a half in 1:21 1-5. King Cobalt under a weak ride, finished in the place, fou lengths before Roseben. Stargowan rar away a mile and a half while on the way to

A killing with Park View, backed from 6 down to 18 to 5, went through successfully in the opening event, a handicap at sever and a half furlongs. There were only three starters in this event, Col. Jack ruling favorite at 4 to 5 while Aletheuo closed at 5 to 2. When the starter pressed the button Col. Jac-got his head caught in the barrier, so tha McDaniel had to pull up. McCarthy, meanwhile, took Park View to the front for a big lead, which was gradually cut down in the stretch by Col. Jack, who ran a game race under the circumstances. At the wire it was Park View by two lengths in 1:34 4-5, Col Jack beating Aletheuo eight lengths for the

Dr. Pillow, 15 to 1, was third, five lengths back. Golden View, 3 to 1, and David Warfield, 11 to 5, did not get away at the start and had no chance. The time was 0:54 1-5.

Tony Bonero, 4 to 1, made all the running in the fifth race, at seven furlongs, and won in a drive by half a length from Antaeus, 6 to 1. Master Robert, 4 to 5 favorite, who finished two lengths back, was poorly ridden by Fulton, a stable boy. The time was 1:28 3-5.

After racing in front at top speed with Banyah for three-quarters of a mile in the last race Bellwether, even money favorite, tired in the last furlong and Lord Stanhope, a 15 to 1 shot, dropping from the clouds, was the winner by two lengths, running the mile in 1:43. Bellwether was under a drive to take the place from Druid, 8 to 1, by a head. Banyah quit and Masaniello, 7 to 1, was shut off. Obert, 7 to 1, was just out of the money.

The bad weather did not reduce the attendance to any great extent as 15,000 persons were on hand as usual. Four favorites were defeated and nearly every bookmaker on the ground quit a big winner on the day. Notter carried off the riding honors with two winners.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BELMONT Withers, Juvenile and Whitney Memorial

Steeplechase Features. With fair weather to-day a great crowd will probably attend the races at Belmont Park, as the card is unusually attractive. If the track dries out James R. Keene's Colin will be a starter in the Withers Stakes, one mile, with Dorante and King James possible contenders. For the Juvenile Stakes, a five furlong dash, for two-year-olds, Casque, Statesman and Joe Madden seem best. T. g. Martin may win the Whitney Memorial Steeplechase, about two and a half miles, with John M. P. and Sandy Creeker to beat. with John M. P. and Sandy Creeker to beat.

In the first race, for two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs, Uncle Jim, Sir Martin and Queen Eleanor may go well. In a handicap at a mile and a furlong Blue Book, Good Luck and Rifleman look like factors. In the last race, for platers, at a mile, Good Luck, Rye and Troublemaker figure well. The entries follow:

At New York-Wet Ground

Bostons, Clevelands and Detroits Win, While the New Yorks Are Idle. The New York-Chicago game for yester-day was postponed on account of wet grounds, but though idle the New Yorks took a better grip on first place. The Athletics were beaten by the Clevelands. It was a six inning game and a shutout for the losers. The Detroits beat the Washingtons and from last accounts did not browbeat any umpires, while the Bostons won from St. Louis. The results: Cleveland, 1; Philadelphia, 0. Boston, 2; St. Louis, 1. Detroit, 4; Washington, 1.

PITTSBURG, May 22.—In a whirlwind ninth inning finish Brooklyn nosed the Pittsburg team out of another game at, Exposition Park this afternoon, the score being 5 to 3. Brooklyn took advantage of every opening and scored three runs in the ninth inning, which was one more than was needed to win. Manager Donovan used up three pitchers in the game, but every one was happy at the end. Pittsburg had made a shift in her lineup for the day, Wilson going to the bench, Leach to middle and Starr to third.

Brooklyn took the lead in the second, scoring two runs. Murch singled and Sheehan hit safe, but Pattee forced Murch at third. Gibson's bad throw of Maloney's bunt allowed Sheehan to score and later Hummel's single scored Maloney.

Pittsburg made matters even in the seventh. Abbaticchio hit for three bases, scoring on Moeller's single. Gibson hit safe and Camnitz struck out. Starr walked, filling the bases, and Donovan then lifted Wilhelm from the box and sent Rucker in. The new man could not locate the plate for an instant and gave Clarke a base on balls, forcing Moeller home with the tying run. A fast double play on Clarke and Leach now pulled Brooklyn out of a bad hole.

Pittsburg took the lead in the eighth. Wagner hit safe, moved up on a sacrifice and a base on balls and scored on Sheehan's error. Sheehan redeemed himself at the opening of the ninth by hitting safe when he was first man up. Pattee walked down and Maloney beat out a bunt, filling the bases with no one out. Pittsburg now closed in for a last stand. Jordan was sent to bat for Bergen and he forced Pattee, but Tommy Sheehan flew over the plate with the tying run. Alperman hitting for Rucker died at first, but Maloney scored. Hummel got in his third hit of the game, scoring Jordan, while Burch went out. Donovan took no chances on the last inning, but sent McIntire in, and the Pittsburgs were easily disposed of. The score:

This is a great season for numerous pitchers in one game, but the record for one team still belongs to McGraw, who put in six in one game against the Chicagos a season or two ago.

Pat Dougherty used to falter and fumble when he played left field for the New Yorks, but he glides around out there now at American League Park with all the ease of a finished fielder.

Griffith's pitchers are all big men except Doyle. Chesbro, Lake, Newton, Glade, Hogg, Orth and Manning make up a brawny staff. Lake, Manning Orth, Newton and Hogg are six footers.

When the New York Nationals were in the South there was talk of McGraw putting Merkle on second base. A good many rooters for the team would like to see him try the plan new.

Always somebody is wondering whether Griffith's pitchers can go the route. If they are pitching good ball at present and are in good condition, why not as well as any other pitchers? None of them has heart disease, consumption or softening of the brain.

C. H. SEELY PUTS OUT TRAVIS

WEE BURN MAN'S VICTORY THE SURPRISE OF GOLF TOURNEY.

Several Long Puts by Seely on Homeward Journey Responsible for Defeat of Veteran in Metropolitan Championship—Travers Is the Other Finalist.

History repeated itself when Charles H. Seely of Wee Burn defeated Walter J. Travis of Garden City in the semi-final round of the Metropolitan Golf Association championship tournament at Baltusrol yesterday. Back in 1902 at Apawamis Seely did the same thing only to lose in the final. By his victory yesterday he earned the right to meet Jerome D. Travis of Montclair, the titleholder in the hirty-six hole final to-day. Travers worked his way into the final bracket at the expense of Robert C. Watson, Jr., of Westbrook and Findlay S. Bouglas of Nassau.

Unquestionably Seely's defeat of the redoubtable Travis proved the sensation of the day. The veteran invariably plays so steady and shows such exceptional golf that he rules favorite in most every tournament, yet oddly enough he has been unable to gain a title since his memorable victory in the amateur championship of Great Britain at Sandwich in 1904. He lost to Seely yesterday because the latter played beautiful golf. Always outdriven, Travis was, to use the expression, "tiptoed" from the start and never once during the entire match did he show in front. It seemed as if Seely couldn't miss a put and by going out in 38 he had the veteran 4 down at the turn. Coming home Seely holed long puts on the Coming home Seely holed long puts on the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth greens for halves when the veteran appeared to have them as good as won. After being dormy 4 the Wee Burn man did actually slip up on a reasonably short put, his only mistake of this kind during the match, but it availed the other nothing save to prolong the agony another hole, as a halve in 5 at the sixteenth left Seely a winner by 3 up and 2 to play. Their cards were:

In looking for a close match between Travers and Douglas the gallery was not disappointed. Douglas appeared full of confidence and the way he brought off long puts in the early stages made it appear as if he might do the trick. He stood one up at the turn and increased this advantage to 2 up at the tenth, which proved to be a chapter of errors. at the tenth, which proved to be a chapter of errors.

Travers then won three holes in succession, which made him 1 up, and he won the match on the seventeenth green in 4 to 5, after Douglas had topped his drive. Throughout the match Travers had decidedly the better of the long game. Their cards were:

LAWN TENNIS.

Notes of the Game and of Coming Tournaments.

The Princeton Lawn Tennis Association, having had to cancel the two out of town meets scheduled by it, has come in for severe meets scheduled by it, has come in for severs criticism by the Daily Princetonian, the college paper, as follows: "We cannot afford to have a team representing the university make such slovenly arrangements with other universities. In each of the cases apologies are due to the opposing managements. But a close investigation into this tennis management shows it is all on an uncertain, unbusinesslike basis. The tennis association, which has been admitted to the university athletic association, has its organization with its officers and the team have a separate organization entirely, so that there is no real cognection and no definite understanding in regard to the ultimate authority in questions which arise in the course of every tennis season."

The second annual open tournament at the Brooklawn Country Club, Bridgeport, Conn., will begin on June 2. The competitions will be in men's singles and doubles. The winner in the singles will be entitled to hold for a year the Brooklawn Challenge cup, offered last year for the first time and won then by Frederick G. Anderson of the Kings County L. T. C. The cup becomes the permanent property of the player winning it three times. The tournament will be in charge of the following committee: Henry B. Stoddard, chairman; Samuel M. Hawley, Charles A. Baldwin, Herbert M. Lyon, Kenneth W. McNeil, John E. Foster, Jr., Gregory S. Bryan, Kenneth E. Weeks, F. N. Benham, Jr., and Jimes G. Ludlum.

Announcement is made by the Philadelphia Cricket Club that the date for the women's national championships in singles and doubles and the national championship in mixed doubles has been changed from the week of June 15 to the week of June 22. The committee has obtained the use of the Chestnut Hill Academy buildings for the accommodation of the contestants. The academy grounds adjoin those of the cricket club. Word comes from the Pacific Coast that Hill Academy buildings for the accommodation of the contestants. The academy grounds adjoin those of the cricket club.

Word comes from the Pacific Coast that Miss May G. Sutton will not go to England this year to take part in lawn tennis tournaments there. Miss Sutton has made three trips, being successful in two of them. She has won the All-England championship in singles twice and has won the Wales championship three times, taking the challenge bowl for her own. It is believed that she will take part this year in the American singles championship, which she won in 1904. Miss Sutton ought to have little difficulty in getting that title back again.

A notice was sent out by A. I. Hoskins, secretary of the U. S. N. L. T. A., to all clubs members of the association asking that the foot fault rule be observed more carefully. The Harlem T. C., which is not a member of the association, did observe the rule in its recent tournament, although one official had the idea that a man who started behind the baseline and took a step forward as he served was not making a fault, because no part of his body crossed the line.

In the tournament of the West Side T. C. for the club championship, a good place to start observing the rule, no attempt is being made to watch foot faults. At the New York L. T. C. opening the foot faults made were not called, possibly because the players were "guests." However, it seems that it would be better to call the faults and save these players some trouble later when they get into tournaments where they may lose valuable points in that way.

Cornell and Michigan will meet this afternoon on the clay courts at Ferry Field, Ann Arbor. A varsity M will be granted to the players if they win from Cornell or other universities regarded as of the same rank.
